

CALL PLANNING WORKSHEET

Organization		Contact
Stage of Customer Buying-Decision Process		Date

Background

Information Collected from CRM/D&B, Definitive Healthcare, LinkedIn, Client website, other sources
--	--

Goal

Primary Goal - The best commitment to action you expect the client to make as a result of your meeting.
Secondary Goal - The least commitment to action you can get from the client to keep the sales process moving forward

Introduction/Pitch

Valid Business Reason What is your "grabber" pitch? Statements to avoid making a client think, "who cares?" FROM CLIENT POINT OF VIEW
Benefits Statement State how client personally wins by working with you.
Suggested agenda
Response check

Fact Finding

Situation questions ENTER your questions here
Insight questions ENTER your questions here
Gap questions ENTER your questions here
Needs/solution questions ENTER your questions here
Summarize Client GAP or needs

Selling Value

Recommend Assessment or Solution By now you should have asked the right questions, and demonstrated the gap that brings the individual to recognition of needs. Prescription before diagnosis = Malpractice
Describe the Impact Your job is to make the gap become real for them. Therefore, you must recognize the importance of planning these statements so they have maximum impact
Response Check

Anticipated Objections

Likely objections
Steps to overcome using: Listen Acknowledge Explore Respond

Gaining Commitment

Summarize your value
Summarize agreements
Suggest next steps
Response check	